

Ideas for Using the Data in Council Membership Tools

Roundtable Commissioners Assistant Roundtable Commissioners

Roundtable commissioners have unique roles in unit service. Their responsibilities of communication, information sharing, issue spotting, unit service, and motivation and encouragement are vital to retention and growth. Roundtable commissioners help existing units provide outstanding programs and retain members. Roundtable commissioners play the same roles for new units, focusing on volunteers in new units to ensure they get the information, training, and support they need.

ENSURING QUALITY COMMUNICATIONS

By watching for new units formed each month, roundtable commissioners can ensure brand-new unit leaders receive personal invitations to roundtables and other district activities.
