

CUB SCOUT ROUNDTABLE VIDEOS

Roundtable is an opportunity for Cub Scout leaders to share with each other and learn about local events and activities.

Roundtables may be on a district or council level, they may be in-person or virtual or a hybrid model. They may be monthly or quarterly. Councils and districts have the flexibility to create a model that maximizes participation.

To support Cub Scout Roundtables the National Cub Scouting Committee has developed a library of Cub Scout Roundtable videos that can be used to support your Cub Scout packs. These videos are 8 to 10 minutes long and cover a specific topic. At the end of each video is an opportunity for the group to discuss and share.

There are more Cub Scout Roundtable videos than there are months in the year, this is by design. We have a recommendation of which videos to show at Roundtable but the videos are also to be used by anyone working with a Cub Scout pack.

When a Cub Scout pack is having a challenge there is a good chance that there is a Cub Scout Roundtable video that will help them through this challenge. This means that in addition to showing these videos at Roundtable, you can also use them to help an individual pack. A unit commissioner may choose to show it to a pack during a pack committee meeting or a parent's meeting.
