Talking to Friends About Scouting

Want your Scouts to share their Scouting adventures with their friends? Here's how to spark the interest of their peers and invite them to join the fun:

 Personal Touch: Share their own experiences and what Scouting means to them. Their enthusiasm will shine through as they talk about the exciting activities, friendships, and skills they have gained.

 Highlight the Adventure: Paint a picture of the thrilling adventures awaiting them in Scouting, from camping under the stars to conquering outdoor challenges or making and running a Pinewood Derby car. Emphasize the opportunity to try new things and make unforgettable memories together.

 Stress the Sense of Belonging: Talk about friends they make in Scouting and fun people in the den, patrol, crew, or ship.

 Make it Inviting: Invite them to join you for an activity so they can experience Scouting firsthand. Encourage them to ask questions and explore what Scouting has to offer.

 Share the Excitement: Spread the word about upcoming events, fun activities, and cool badges they can earn. Show them that Scouting is not only about learning but also about having a blast along the way.

With their passion and encouragement, they can inspire their friends to embark on their own Scouting journey and create memories that will last a lifetime!
